Every effort will be made to tailor individual accommodations to your specific needs.

Additional resources available to help assure student success will also be discussed.

For questions regarding disability services, contact SJR State Advising at (386) 312-4035 or Dual Enrollment at (386) 312-4136.

Students with disabilities are welcome at SJR State and are encouraged to contact the disabilities coordinator on their campus. The more we know about you as an individual, the better we can accommodate your educational needs. If you have a disability that may affect your success, performance or well-being at the College, it is important you share that information with the disabilities coordinator, the College does not identify students with a disability on the application. Our goal is to ensure every student is informed of our services and available educational accommodations.

Do I have to inform St. Johns River State College that I have a disability?

No. However, if you want an educational accommodation, you must inform us. You will need to register with the disabilities coordinator on your campus and provide documentation verifying your disability. It is the student's responsibility to identify their disability to the disability coordinator, the College will not identify students with a disability. The documentation and information you share with us will be kept private and strictly confidential.
